Dear Student:

Thank you for enquiring about our LSAT test preparation courses.

The Law School Admission Test (LSAT) is unlike any test you have ever written. Through a standardized yet unconventional question format, the LSAT tests logical reasoning skills, analytical reasoning skills, and reading comprehension skills. The LSAT is administered throughout the year. To register for the exam, please contact the Law School Admission Council (LSAC) by telephone at 215-968-1001 or online at www.lsac.org.

Our intensive 30-hour courses and 48-hour courses are well-organized, challenging courses designed for students who wish to maximize their competitive position in relation to other students writing the LSAT. We focus on building the skills you need to master the LSAT. Our dynamic instructors give you a comprehensive understanding of each section of the LSAT, cover tactics specific to individual sections, and review strategies which apply to the test as a whole.

If you want a competitive edge over other students writing the LSAT, consider Oxford Seminars. We maintain the highest standards for all our instructors and only select and train those instructors who have years of distinguished teaching experience and who have demonstrated outstanding achievement on the LSAT. We have successfully taught thousands of students. Our courses are held on university campuses across Canada.

Our research department has compiled a summary profile of all law schools across Canada. In our continuing efforts to assist students with the entire law school application and admissions process, we have enclosed a copy of our useful profiles.

A word of caution from our knowledgeable instructors about commercially available LSAT preparation materials: unfortunately, much of this material is poorly researched and does not reflect the current test. Our written materials are constantly updated to reflect the most recent changes in the LSAT.

Please review the enclosed information and contact us if you have any further questions. To register for any upcoming course, call our office or complete and return the attached registration form. We look forward to hearing from you.

Limited Class Size
In order to ensure a low student-to-instructor ratio, our LSAT test prep courses have a limited enrolment with spaces allocated on a first-come-first-served basis. The small class size provides a comfortable setting with ample opportunity for interaction with our talented and experienced LSAT course instructors.

Practice LSAT Exam Tests with Review of Questions
Our courses conclude with the writing of full-length practice LSAT exams during which testing conditions are carefully reproduced. This provides our students with an excellent opportunity to practise and master (under LSAT exam conditions) the many skills they have acquired during the weekend course.

Please visit our website at www.oxfordseminars.ca for more information.
Our Talented and Experienced LSAT Course Instructors
Oxford Seminars maintains the highest standards for all of our course instructors. We hire and extensively train only the most qualified instructors who have not only scored in the top 2% of all LSAT test-takers, but who also have years of distinguished teaching experience.

From critically evaluating logical reasoning passages and drawing well-supported conclusions, to applying effective diagramming techniques and identifying structural flaws and errors in arguments, our instructors focus on teaching you the critical skills you need to master the LSAT.

At the end of each and every LSAT prep course, our students are asked to evaluate our teaching staff. They tell us that they find our course instructors approachable, highly knowledgeable, and able to present difficult material in a dynamic, useful, and creative manner which facilitates learning and understanding.

Personal LSAT Tutoring Available
For those students who have particular difficulty with any aspect of the LSAT exam, we offer individual tutoring sessions with one of our highly skilled LSAT course instructors. In addition to the extensive home study materials, which every student receives, we also make available for purchase additional LSAT practice materials from the Law School Admission Council.

Free Repeat Policy
All of our LSAT test preparation courses include a no hassle free repeat policy which allows students to repeat the entire course for a second time, free of charge, within one year of their original course start date. Once you have taken any of our LSAT courses, you may repeat that course, free of charge, at any time for any reason within the next 12 months. Some students take advantage of this policy to review and re-attend our test prep course for double the preparation, prior to writing the LSAT, for one low price.

In order to ensure a low student-to-instructor ratio, we ask free repeat students to contact us in advance to reserve their place in the upcoming LSAT test prep class. Free repeat students are asked to bring their original course materials and valid ID to class.

How to Master the Entire Law School Application Process
In today's competitive academic climate, a winning application can be the difference that makes you stand out among the thousands of students applying to law schools across Canada (and the United States).

Our LSAT preparation course covers how to master all areas of the application and admissions process. This includes a comprehensive review of:

- What law school admissions committees are really looking for
- How to avoid the traps and mistakes of other first-time applicants
- The art of writing persuasive personal statements
- Properly presenting your academic grades
- The importance of the LSAT score
- How to carefully choose your references
- How to highlight your extra-curricular activities
- Which law schools should you apply to
- Unique application strategies for each Canadian law school
- Mature students and special circumstances

For further information about law schools, review our Canadian Law School Profiles included in this package.

The Law School Admission Test
The Law School Admission Test (LSAT) is a half-day, standardized exam administered throughout each year by the Law School Admission Council (LSAC) at designated testing centres throughout the world, but primarily in Canada, the United States, and the Caribbean. Most Canadian law schools along with all American Bar Association (ABA) approved law schools require the LSAT as part of their admissions process.

The LSAT provides a standard measure of acquired reading and verbal reasoning skills that law schools use as a primary factor in assessing applicants. The test itself is comprised of numerous questions designed to assess a wide range of abilities involved in critical thinking, with an emphasis on the skills that are central to legal reasoning. These skills include:

- the reading and comprehension of complex text with accuracy and insight
- the organization and management of information and the ability to draw reasonable inferences from it
- the ability to think critically
- the analysis and evaluation of the reasoning and arguments of others

Please visit our website at www.oxfordseminars.ca for more information.
The LSAT is scored on a scale of 120 - 180 points. To put the score scale in perspective, the University of Toronto, for example, is looking for a potential candidate to have a score of approximately 167. The University of Victoria would be in the 163 range whereas the University of Ottawa does not require a minimum LSAT score of their applicants. The weight given to the LSAT will vary according to the other elements in each applicant’s file. Be sure to read the Canadian Law School Profiles in this package for more information about all law schools across the country.

Our Commitment to You
Since 1992, we have successfully prepared thousands of students to write the LSAT exam. Oxford Seminars provides excellence in test preparation at an affordable price. Our comprehensive LSAT courses are designed for students who are serious about maximizing their potential on test day.

When asked to evaluate our courses, over 98% of our students say they would recommend us to their friends. We offer high quality instruction for students who want to invest in their future. Our goal is to help you achieve an outstanding LSAT test score.

Proven and Effective Test-Taking Strategies
Our highly trained, dynamic LSAT course instructors focus on effective test-taking strategies. We thoroughly review all topics covered by the exam. During the course, you will be exposed to a variety of strategies and questions which include:

- Critically evaluating logical reasoning passages
- Identifying structural flaws and errors in arguments
- Mastering all LSAT analytical reasoning concepts
- Learning effective diagramming techniques
- Determining how additional evidence can affect an argument
- Drawing proper inferences and well-supported conclusions
- Applying reasoning by analogy
- Learning to recognize wrong answer types among LSAT questions
- Mastering drawing clear and concise logic games diagrams
- Working strategically under strict timing conditions
- Developing an effective personal LSAT study schedule
- Comprehensive understanding of the entire law school application process

We offer the most effective, up-to-date LSAT courses available, regardless of cost, and back them with our commitment to ensuring your personal success on test day. Our well-designed course curriculum is dynamic, interactive, and taught by experienced instructors who provide continuity in the learning process as you advance from one skill set to the next.

In order to expose you to the latest test format, questions from recent LSAT tests will be taken up in class. Our materials are constantly updated to reflect the most recent changes in the exam. Thus, you will be able to evaluate your own strengths and weaknesses (whether in the logical reasoning, analytical reasoning, or reading comprehension sections of the test) and focus on those questions where you need the most practice. We stand firmly behind our total immersion approach to test preparation.

More Canadians are writing the LSAT each year (a 32% increase since 2001).
